

Where do you find refuge in a world of political and cultural upheaval? Join us for a series of topical lectures, panel discussions and events at the Tucson Humanities Festival (formerly Humanities Week) presented by UA College of Humanities faculty and special guests.

OCTOBER
10-17, 2016

REFUGE

Presented by:
Albert Welter
EAST ASIAN STUDIES

The three refuges – the Buddha, the Dharma (Buddhist teaching), and the Sangha (Buddhist community) – mark the pivotal transformation in Buddhism and official commitment to embarking on the Buddhist path. But what does this path entail? How is refuge understood when you are of the world and seeking to transcend its limitations at the same time? While the Buddhist quest has been accommodated across Asian cultures, it is also dependent by social and political realities and the cultural conditions of where refuge is sought. Explore some of the ways seeking refuge and finding refuge has manifested itself in history.

THURSDAY
OCT 13 @ 4:30PM

BUDDHIST ESCAPES:
CAUGHT BETWEEN TWO WORLDS

UA POETRY CENTER
DOROTHY RUBEL ROOM
Helen S. Schaefer Building, 1508 E. Helen St.
FREE Parking after 5PM

College of Humanities

▶▶▶ humanitiesfestival.arizona.edu