

Dr. Shunxin Nie's CV

Dr. Shunxin Nie is a Chinese visiting scholar at the Center for Buddhist Studies at the University of Arizona. Dr. Shunxin Nie earned his doctoral degree in Chinese History (Chinese Historical Geography) from Fudan University in 2012, and currently is an assistant research fellow of the Institute for Historical Environment and Socio-economic Development of Northwest China at Shaanxi Normal University.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of History, Yunnan University, 2006

Ph.D of History, Fudan University, 2012 (successive postgraduate and doctoral programs of study, 2006-2012)

Dissertation: Study on the State Monasteries of Tang Dynasty

Doctoral Advisor: Prof. Weiran Zhang

MAJOR

History of Buddhism Monasteries of Tang Dynasty

Politico-Religious relationship of Medieval China

Buddhist Geography of Medieval China

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

7/2012 to now, Institute for Historical Environment and Socio-economic Development of Northwest China, Shaanxi Normal University,

Assistant Research Fellow.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

(1) Study on the Special Functions of the Buddhist State Monasteries of Tang Dynasty, Studies in World Religions, 2018(5)

(2) Study on the Inscription of Relic allocation of Hongjiao temple of Panzhou, Studies in World Religions, 2011(4)

(3) A study on the institution of Buddhist state monasteries in the 1st year of Qianfeng

in Gaozong Reign of Tang dynasty, Religious Studies, 2018(2)

(4) The Distribution and its Changes of Buddhist State Monasteries before and after the Buddhism abrogating policy of Tang Wuzong, Journal of Chinese Historical Geography, 2018(4)

(5) The Buddhist State Monasteries and Semi-independent Fanzhens' Political Legitimacy Construction in the Middle and Late Tang, Northwest Ethnology Series, 2018(1)

(6) The Implementation and Significance of the Imperial Edict of Kaiyuan State Monasteries Issued by Emperor Xuan-zong in the Tang Dynasty. Journal of East China Normal University (Philosophy and Social Sciences Edition), 2019(1)

(7) Further Discussion on The Guangming temple in Chang'an in The Sui to early Tang Dynasty was not a Manichaeism Temple, Northwest Ethnology Series, 2017(1)

(8) Kaiyuan Taoist temple in Chang'An and Emperor Xuanzong's Capital Religious Policy, Journal of Shaanxi Normal University(Philosophy and Social Sciences Edition), 2017(2)

(9) Study on the Inscription of Jade Buddha statue base of Guanghui temple in Zhengding County of Hebei province, Journal of Shaanxi Normal University(Philosophy and Social Sciences Edition), 2015(2)

RESEARCH PROJECTS

(1) Study on the Buddhist State Monasteries of Tang Dynasty, the National Social Science Fund of China (NSSFC), 2016-2019, Project leader.

(2) The rituals on the death anniversaries of the deceased former Emperor and Empress and the Confucianism, Buddhism and Taoism of Sui and Tang China, Key Research project in Humanities and Social Sciences of Shaanxi Normal University, 2017-2019, Project leader.

(3) The Formation, Development and Evolution of the Religious Space in the Chang'an City of Sui and Tang Dynasties, Project in Humanities and Social Sciences of Shaanxi Normal University, 2017-2019, Project leader.

(4) Study of the Traffic and Literature from Wei Jin to Sui Tang Dynasties, Major projects of the national social science fund (NSSFC), 2018-2020, participant.